Dora Jane Black

APR 27, 2015

Dora J. Black, 67, of Columbia was received into the arms of Jesus on Sunday, April 26, 2015 at Boone Hospital Center. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, May 9, 2015 at St. Luke United Methodist Church at 1:00 pm. Visitation will be from 11-1 Saturday at the church.

Dora Jane Black was born July 3, 1947 in Columbia, Mo., the daughter of Howard Stevenson and May Louise Crews. She attended Douglas School and Columbia College. She also sang in a band called Etta Kat and the Kittens, and played softball for C.B.'s Angels. She worked as an administrative secretary in St. Louis, Mo. for 40 years until she retired. She married James Black in St. Louis. She was a member of the Church of God in Christ.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons Tony (Teresa) Crews, Terry Tatum and Timothy Wright all of Columbia, Mo., two daughters Sheri Wright of Tampa, Fl., and Felisa Wright of St. Louis, Mo. two sisters Linnie Cady and Ada Williams both of Denver, Co., and two brothers Ed Crews of Columbia, Mo., and Richard Crews of France, 10 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and one brother Russell Crews.

Thinking of my dear friend, Dora. I had no idea God had called you home. Thought I heard your voice and decided to see how you were doing. Remembering our short but good times while you were in Kansas City many years ago. Rest in peace my dear friend.

OMG! I worked with Dora for many years. Her humor often times made my day! We had some fun social times together also. With Deepest Sympathy! In your time of sorrow may it ease your pain to know that others are thinking of you. May God bless you during this difficult time. Blessings! Janice Thompson-Hall

My favorite granny in the world, I'm going to miss you sooo much and miss talking to you. I hate I didn't get to say I love you or goodbye before you went to the happy hunting ground as you call it laugh out loud. But I know you are in a better place and the lord wanted you to be with him. I know you will be watching over me and will always be worth me. I LOVE YOU GRANNY!!!

May our dear loved one rest in sleep now until her name is called – John 5:28,29. God will provide us the strength to endure this most difficult time. God promises to bring back to life all who have fallen asleep in death to a beautiful Paradise where, sickness, suffering, pain, tear and death will be no more – forever – Revelation 21:4. I know that God will bind up the broken hearted and those crushed in spirit he will save, he will help our family to cope as each day passes. May we all keep close in mind the beautiful memories and may those memories bring a smile to our heart. Oh how I already MISS our conversations!!
