Latonya,after all these years, yes, I am still thinking about you. Little man just turned 14, so its been about that long since I talked to you. I wish we were both over the last time I saw you. I think things would have turned out a whole lot different. I just spent the last 8 years seven days and six months in prison. I just got out on December the 10th. I had a few people look you up, try to find you, but they never came with any results. And then, On February 24th I'll look you up for myself. I feel like I could wake up at any second right now. It just don't seem real. I've been knowing you since I was 16 years old, & I have been looking forward to seeing you again after all these years. But when I looked you up, I didn't find a Facebook page or anything like that. I found your obituary. No matter where you are in this universe, I just want you to know that you will always be on my mind and in my heart. And if it's anything a little boy I need, I just hope you told him about me so he won't have a problem asking me for anything. That goes for the entire family. I really wish you could have heard the song I wrote you. I called it, the world would be yours.

To her children. Your mother was a sweet person. Was kind too any body.she had a positive attitude. Full of laughter me and your mom always joke around and just live life.To her parents she is with God nowno more suffering on this world.to extended family we should have that smile today even on a sad day she would want us to be in good spirit. For she is with her father and god.says it's time to rest.until he call us home. So I leave on that note. A Sunshine is at rest today but she okay.

Tonya , its hard to realize your gone . I have not seen you in a long time. We all used to hang out at school . The years have passed so fast. But, now you have left this world . Your kids will carry on your smiles and the love you gave. You will be missed but, your soul will live on. Rest in peace , may god hold you in his arms and you become one of his beautiful angels. Hugs. You will never be forgotten.
