I got the pleasure of meeting Terry on several occasions, he was always such a pleasant, well spoken, gently, funny guy! I do however consider his son Tyler one of my brothers. Even though I didn't get to know Terry very well I can only imagine how awesome of a human being and father he was! If it wasn't for him being as good as he was I know that Tyler would not be half the man that he is today. He will now live on through the wonderful memories that we all share of such an GREAT man. RIP Love you Tyler, Katie

Terry was a good friend to me. We worked together in the MU athletic department while I was working in the football office and he was working in the athletic dining hall. Terry became close friends with many of the athletes who ate in the athletic dining hall. He will be missed by many people. My thoughts and prayers go out to Terry's family.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted (Mathew 5:4). The Warren family extends our most sincere condolences to the family of Terry Bush. Terry was a humble, honest and true friend. As a member of "the Block" I spent countless Sunday evenings at his home usually eating his fried chicken and solving every problem in Columbia. I will fondly cherish those times. We will miss you friend.

Where to began..... I'm the cousin of Tyler, his first cousin. Even though uncle Terry and Tyler's mom were never married, Terry was the closest thing to an uncle I had. Terry was such a meticulous man. House always spotless, clothes always ironed to a T..... Tyler has grown up to be just that man. Terry was an exceptional father, son, uncle, friend, and leader. He will truly be missed by so, so, so many people. His legacy of being such a great man will live on forever. Tyler has so much to prove and carry on for his father. His father wouldn't want us to mourn and cry, although that is so hard not to do, Terry would want us to cook up a grand ol' fashion meal, all get together and celebrate the wonderful life he lived. Uncle Terry will truly be missed and my heart aches for the pain that Tyler has to endure as a young man losing his father, but Tyler is strong and will strive even harder to be a better man knowing that his father is watching over him. Prayers and thoughts to all the Bush family and to our family as well. Stay strong my baby cousin, as you are as strong of a man, the same your dad is. ???

Terry was a good co-worker of mine. I knew him for many years. He was always pleasant to be around and always had a smile on his face. His death hits close to home because he was born the same year i was. It really makes my heart heavy being the same age he was. You just never know when God will call you. Still dealing with the loss of my father this past May, i know Terry's spirit is with the Lord. May God comfort his family as he has with mine. Chris Harrison

My heart is heavy; Terry was a kind, caring, and giving friend for the past 45 years. Such a good person and SO loved his family.1 Thessalonians 4:13 paraphrased says something like yes, we're grieving right now but at least we don't have to grieve like those who have no hope. I know this means I will see my good, dear friend and buddy again in Heaven someday soon. No more pain; no more sorrow and God will wipe away every tear. Rest in Heavenly Peace, Terry Lewis Bush — we all loved you SO much!
