To The Jackson Family You have my heartfelt sympathy in the passing of Mother Ruby Jackson. She will truly be missed. She had such a sweet, sweet spirit. I will miss seeing her on Sunday morning sitting in her spot at St. Matthews. She truly loved God and her Church and everybody. I never ever heard her say a cross word about anybody. I loved her dearly. She was a fine example of Christian. I pray that you will find comfort, knowing she is with God, singing his praises all the day. She is resting now, in God's loving arms.
