To the family De'Audre Johnson, I am so very sorry for your loss. What a devastation, it is to lose a love one, but for a mother to have to bury her son it is even worse. We as parents think that we will die before our children, but that is not always the case. Resa, Jehovah knows you and your families pain and what you are going through. At Revelation 21:4 it tells us this "And he {Jehovah} will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more. neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So Resa and family Jehovah God will wipe those tears that you are shedding away. There will be no more pain sorry and suffering for you and your family to endure. All these things will be a thing of the past. Jehovah will also by means of his kingdom, bring an end to lawlessness, fighting, shooting, murders all will be done away with permanently. One day very soon, that model prayer that Jesus taught us to pray for will be answered. What a relief it will be for us all. But until then you take care. May Jehovah continue to strengthen your family during these times.

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. De'Audre will forever be missed as a friend that can't be replaced. While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil. ~John Taylor God Bless De'Audre's family.
