To the family of Margaret K. HayesThe officers and members of The Second Baptist Church of Huntsville, Mo extend to you our heartfelt love and prayers as you mourn the passing of your beloved Mother, Grandmother, Aunt, Friend, and our Sister In Christ. In the 3rd chapter of Ecclesiastes, verse 1, the Bible tells us that there is a season, and a time for every matter or purpose under Heaven. On November 3rd, Sister Hayes's soul took flight and made a transition from her Earthly tabernacle to her Heavenly home, and today, she is enjoying the glory of Heaven, a place of restoration, where there will be no more death, sadness, crying, or pain. It is a place of Divine presence, for God is with His people, a place of Purity,and a place of Joy. She has completed her journey and has taken her place in Heaven, but for those of us who remain, God still has a purpose for us here on earth. We want to encourage you, her family to allow The Lord's everlasting Arm to be your constant support during this season of your ife.Prayerfully Submitted ,Officers and Members of Second Baptist ChurchHuntsville, MoDoris Redding, Minister

To the family of Margaret Hayes, I send you my condolence. The bible holds out a wonderful promise for those love ones that have fallen asleep in death. At I Corinthians 15:21,22 tells us this "For since death is through a man, resurrection of the dead is also through a man. For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Because of our first father Adam, we die. But because of Jesus Christ who died on that torture stake, we have a chance to live forever here on the earth. Isn't that a wonderful promise from Jehovah God? Mankind has another chance by means of Jesus. So you will be able to see Ms. Hayes again. I do that these words have been of comfort to you. May Jehovah continue to be with you during this time.
