To the family of Pearl Sims I send you my condolence. I was sorry to read about Mrs. Sims. Although I did not know her personally she sounds like a beautiful lady. I know she was well loved by family and friends. Matthew 5:4 says this "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted." Jehovah God gives us comfort when we loose a love one to death. He also gives us the strength to help us endure through these trying times. Philippians 4:13 tells us this "For all things I have the strength by virtue of him who imparts power to me." You take care.

May there be comfort in knowing that someone so special will never be forgotten. Our deepest sympathies are with the Sims family in your time of need. Aunt Pearl will be greatly missed by us all. 2 Corinthians 4:16-15:8 Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. Meanwhile we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked. For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come. Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. We live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. Joe Lee Rowles Sr. and Family Phyllis Rowles Deirdre Rowles and Family Joe Rowles Jr. and Family
