I really miss talking to my Aunt she had told me to get there to see her as soon as I could before she would not be able to see me. My Aunt was a beautiful woman I miss you still, but I know you are resting in the arms of Jesus.

To Mr. Warsh Elbert and Family You and your family are in our hearts and prayers. Mrs. Jewel will truly be missed. I will miss her phone calls, she would often times call me and asked where to find a scripture or a bible verse, that she was thinking about. She was truly a wonderful, stylish lady, I will miss her, but God has a resting place for her. She is resting in his loving arm. Yours In Christ Sis. Pam Taylor

To the family of Ms. Jewel, I want to say may you give precedence to seek out for God's help. Allow his spirit to permeate your being, to meet the difficulties and challenges of life you will need, to face her absence. With God we are able to elevate from tension packed- valleys to the sublime heights of inner peace and find radiant stars of hope against the nocturnal bosom of life's most depressing nights. I will always remember Ms. Jewel as the sweet, high spirited God-filled woman who she was. Remember Absent in the body is Present with the Lord. God bless the family, Carolyn Turner b.k.a. Baby
