I was saddened to see that you lost your father. The pain that comes from the loss of a loved one can be overwhelming and painful. Know that I will think of your family during your time of sorrow. He is now in God's memory waiting for the time when, as Jesus himself said, there will be a resurrection for those fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29) These will be given the opportunity to experience life to the full in perfect health without all of the things that cause us pain and suffering. (Rev. 21:3,4; Ps.37:10,11 & 29) Your Friend Jerod

I am deeply sadden by your loss. It is still hard 2 believe that Mr. Ed has departed this life but I have to remind myself that he is in a better place with Mrs. Geraldine. He's in no pain, no suffering and has no worries. His shell may be in the ground but his spirit is still here wit us and he has left wonderful memories with everyone. He was a wonderful and thoughtful man and will be truly missed by all.

Dad will be missed. He loved professional basketball. Was not a fan of commercials. Always had a kind word and always remembers Columbia in the fifties! To the family my prayers are with you in this time of loss. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I may be of assistance in any capacity. May the Peace of the Lord be with all of you! Sincerely, Kent Johnson
