To the Jackman Family: Sorry for your loss. I know how it feels but know that you all will be together again someday. My memories of Cousin Pee Wee are many going all the way back to the days of visiting his garage with my Dad right up to him coming to get me at the airport in Kansas City when my father passed to visiting with him a couple of years ago when I was moving from San Diego to Cleveland. He will be sorely missed.

In times like these we need an Anchor, I am believing your anchor is in the Lord. To the Willis Jackman's family, I want to let you all know you are in my prayers, I ask God even now to let his love, shine on you, and cover each one of you with his Peace.. Wish I could be there to give each of you a hug. Gosh, I will miss Mr. Pee Wee. The last time I talked to him, I ask him did he know me,? He said, Yes you look like Anna Sue. He truly was loved.
