J.A. Clarke Beattie

OCT 2, 1945 - APR 13, 2017

J A. Clarke Beattie of Columbia Missouri passed away April 13th 2017. He is best known in the world for the thousands of cherished pieces of jewelry he designed and created at Beattie Jewelers. He was an avid traveler, chef, and craftsman with a keen eye for detail in everything he created. As a Vietnam Veteran serving in the US Navy, he was dedicated to his country and served 3 years when called. His laugh and his passion for life and beauty will be sorely missed by many, especially his children. Renee Taylor (Beattie) and John Beattie request any donations in his honor be made to the Central Missouri Honor Flight for veterans. Memorial services will be held May 1st, 2017 at 530pm at The Crossing church.

For those who wish to may donate to the Central Missouri Honor Flight in honor of J.A. Clarke Beattie. <https://centralmissourihonorflight.com/donate/>

Renee: Words cannot describe how sorry I am for your loss. Your dad was truly one of the greatest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I take solace in knowing that he is free of pain and suffering. His spirit is soaring high, I have no doubt. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Oh Renee, I am so deeply sorry for your loss, but so happy that your family came together. Clarke was a good man - sensitive to others and a great friend to me. xoxoxoxo
