The Plan of the Master Weaver
Our lives are but fine weavings
That God and we prepare.
Each life becomes a fabric planned And fashioned in his care.
We may not always see just how
The weavings intertwine,
But we must trust the Master's hand
And follow his design,
For he can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While we must look from underneath
And trust him to guide...
Sometimes a strand of sorrows added to his plan,
And though it's difficult for us,
We still must understand
That it's he who fills the shuttle,
It's he, who knows what's best,
So we must weave in patience
And leave to Him the rest...
Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why-
The dark threads are as needed
In the weavers skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern he has planned.

Don was one of the kindest people I've ever known. He would give you his last dime if you needed it..He use to amuse me with all of his stories and man he had plenty of them!! He always took time to talk with my mom when we had Thanksgiving or Easter dinner. She really enjoyed talking to him. I'm going to miss hearing his laugh the most and that silly grin...my condolences
