Dad im so so sorry for everything, not staying in contact with you, not letting you be a grandpa to my girls and not telling you that i love you. I know sorry isnt enough and its too late to twll you how sorry i am. I hope that one day on the other side when its my turn you will forgive me and we will fly high together like a family again... i miss you so much and words cant explain hpe hard this is for us girls but we know your not in pain anymore and your with grandma. I promise i will see you again one day. R.I.P dad

Kevin what can I say you was my big brother. You was also my friend I will never forget all the great times we had together hanging out at dads playing guitar and singing with you dad and Keith. I will miss you and think of you daily. I just wished we got to spend more time together and I could have gave you a hug and tell you I love ya. Fly high my brother we will see each other again in the great beyond. Till then just know I love you and miss you
