Winifred Paulette Ballinger-Hill, 77 of Columbia, Missouri passed away on Thursday, August 30, 2018 at her home surrounded by family. She was born on December 4, 1940, to the late Clara Smith-Ballinger and the late William Leroy Ballinger of St. Louis, Missouri and returned to Columbia, Missouri at an early age with her family.

Paulette loved being a mother and caring for her children, as well as other children in the community. She went out of her way to make life better for others by providing school supplies clothing and pressed hair, for children and ladies. Paulette also was a great cook and baker. She made the best Christmas goodies and placed them in decorative Christmas tins, that would include her knock-out fudge, divine divinity candy, dancing reindeer cookies, jolly Santa Claus cookies and many other baked goods made from scratch, decorated and trimmed with love. She always enjoyed sharing her cooking with family and friends.

Paulette graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1958. She accepted Christ at an early age, and was a member of St. Paul A.M.E. Church of Columbia, Missouri and also regularly attended St. Luke United Methodist Church of the city.

Paulette married Donald Hill and to this union five children were born; Donnetta Keith Hill, Martina Hill, Ronald Hill and Arvelia Hill who she leaves to cherish her memories. With these children, she also leaves to cherish her memory two surviving sisters, Brenda Stevenson (Atlanta, Georgia) and Gwendolyn Ballinger (Columbia, Missouri) and one-half sister, Ernestine Berry (Kansas City, Missouri) and one surviving brother, Whitman (Wanda Sue) Maurice Ballenger (Harbor City, California. She also leaves eighteen grand-children, twenty-four great grand-

HILL. When I think of how to define that word, it certainly, connects me to mountains. In the church, we often sing about climbing hills and higher mountains as we try to get HOME. Well family, I believe that Aunt Paulette, has reached her goal! PRAISE GOD FOR LIVING TOO LIVE AGAIN. Use the tears to wipe the pain away. Engage the memories to live your best lives. Share the hope to empower each other. Laugh often for the strength that you will get to carry on through the ' looking back days, heading forward times'. Yes, your mama and our beloved, left us some good stuff to feast upon. What a legacy. May the love of CHRIST abide and sustain you all as you LISTEN to the still voice in your hearts for guidance. The efforts put forth to support your mother are valuable and appreciated; furthermore, they serve as examples of what the Bible expects of us in relationship to others. Philippians 2. Prayer goes where we cannot. Therefore, my spirit is with you in this trying time. May you all be blessed by the comforting knowledge of the HOLY GHOST and the power of GRACE and MERCY provided too everyone, and especially so, the BELIEVERS. Church Hugs and Kisses! I am because GOD IS... Donna Renfro

Dear Family, especially my cousins, Donnetta, Keith, Martina, Ronald, and Arvelia, I regret that I am unable to be with you in the flesh to share in the homegoing of Aunt Paulette but I continue in prayer for your strength and solace as you lay your beloved mother to rest. It seems like only yesterday when we were all kids running around and playing at the homes of relatives all over Columbia and in St. Louis; but time moves on and our family circle shrinks with each passing and we are left to pick up the baton and take it to the next generation. The blessing is that our family with all of our ups and downs has a legacy worth passing on and Aunt Paulette truly did her part to hold up the banner. I am proud to call her aunt and I am grateful that her children were there for her until the very end. Arvelia, her baby, I praise God for giving you the wisdom, willingness and patience to serve as her primary caregiver. Caregiving is not easy and you did your best and she now rests in the bosom of Jesus free from pain! Praise the Lord. You all will have some difficult days; but draw closer to God and He will keep you in perfect peace. Remember, you never really lose the ones you love; because you can always find them in your heart. God bless...Love you all! Rev. Melba Renfro Atlanta, Georgia
