I loved this man like no other, we met at the St.Louis Mo. processing site for the Armed Service in April of 1975. We took an oath to serve in the Air Force. I have never known a better friend. We laughed through training about anything and everything.He taught me not to take life so seriously. He loved his wife and family deeply, I miss him and will everyday until we laugh together again. My love and friendship to his wife and family,
