Maressa Prince

MAY 16, 1978 - AUG 1, 2021

Maressa Prince, 43, of Columbia, passed away on Sunday, August 1, 2021, at her home. Services will be held on Thursday, August 12, 2021, at 12 PM at Second Missionary Baptist Church in Columbia. Visitation will be from 11 AM to 12 PM at the church.

Maressa Marie Prince was a beloved soul born May 16th, 1978, to Jamesetta Marie Prince daughter of Betty Sue Tate and Lavern Tatum, granddaughter of Etta Evelyn Carter and Robert Prince Sr. of Columbia, Missouri. Maressa's father Theodore Eugene Daniels resided in Des Moines Iowa.

Maressa Marie was both Jamesetta's and Theodore's first-born child. Maressa nicknamed Ressie was a beautiful bundle of joy and a great asset to her family. Raised up on park street and Moore walkway. Ressie grew to be a quiet lovable little girl with a humble spirit and kind heart which followed her throughout all the days of her life.

Maressa's nickname was Fat Pat in her teenage years, she was known for her playful attitude, tough demeanor, nonchalant cool behavior and no-nonsense personality. As Ressie matured and became an adult she quickly developed into a sexy, smart, sassy, funny, unforgettable one of a kind young lady equipped with hustle, class, with a spirit of strength and determination.

As a young adult Maressa often enjoyed going out, traveling, making money and spending time with close friends and family. But in 1995 Maressa's life changed forever when she brought her first love Mahajanae Waynesha Prince into the world. From that moment of her life, it would become all about her daughter. A few years later December 14th, 1998, her second love came along, she named her Miajon Allen. On December 19th, 2015, Ressie's heart would melt and be filled with joy by the birth of her granddaughter Mckenhli Green, who instantly became the center of her life. She loved her some Tootie. Maressa was always an awesome Naune to her grandbaby and mother to her children she took pride in sacrificing everything to make sure they never had to want or ask for anything. Ressie Pee loved to lift her family and friends with her bright smile brown eyes and lure them in with her infectious laugh. Anyone that knows Ressie knows she had the best hugs and a warm motherly embrace you just could not ignore. She would hold you real tight and kiss you on the cheek and say I love you.

Maressa had a warrior spirit; she never gave up or changed; she always remained the same. Always loyal, honest, trustworthy and loving. She was always strong, independent, caring, and charismatic person who you could call on for help, advice, or just to lend an ear.

We love and miss you Ressie, you will forever be in our minds and in our hearts until we see you again. Today we celebrate you going home to be with your great grandmother Etta Kat, Grandma Sue, your momma Jamie, Grandpa Vern, Tony Tate, Thomas Carter, Robert Prince Sr., Aunt Max and too many more to name.

Maressa Marie Prince is survived by daughters Mahajanae Prince, Miajon Allen (Mimi) granddaughter Mckenhli Green, companion Terrence Williams, Father Theodore Daniels, brother Darryl Jackson, sisters Marisha Prince, Myeisha Coats, Rashawda Daniels, Raneisha Daniels, aunties Carla Bradley, Chrystal Bradley, Amy Tatum, uncles Aaron, Tatum, Terry Tatum, Chauncy Tatum, Tony Crews, Michael Richardson, Godfather James Gray, her Prince Family, Coats family, Sutton family, and a host of nieces, nephews, loved ones and friends
