January 29, 2022, To the family of Bro. Lawrence Johnson, We, the Officers and members of MT. Olive Missionary Baptist Church are extending our heartfelt sympathy to family and friends in the home going of Bro. Johnson, we encourage you during this time to pause and remember the many blessings that God allowed you to enjoy together and to also take courage to face the days ahead with the comfort of knowing that you will meet again in heaven one day. Many people look upon death as a sad occasion and often beyond our understanding but God in his infinite wisdom knows what is best and his Will is done according to his plan. Bro. Johnson has been given the privilege to go home sooner than some of us to a place much more beautiful and serene than we know. Thank our Heavenly Father for the life he lived among those who loved him. His purpose has been filled and God has called him home. He will truly be missed by family and friends. We are praying for you, may God bless each of you and give you strength and courage. Continue to make God your hope and look up to the hills from whence cometh your help. Sympathetically yours, Officers and members of MT. Olive Missionary Baptist Church

LJ, My heart is so heavy 😞, I'm truly at a lost for words (you know that doesn't happen to often 😊) You know that Virgo thing. I remember when I first moved to Mexico, you were the first one to say "OH you my cousin, well I guess it is what it is 😞. We hung out and did all kinds of things most people will never know about. I love you for that ❤️. The parties at my house in the big projects, you were always rocking as my security, I Thank you for that ❤️. (keeping your family safe ❤️ ❤️) Even when I moved back to the DMI, you came up and we would hang out. It was always a good times. I just want you to know I'm grateful to have you as a member of my family. This is not Goodbye, this is see you later. I Love you cousin ❤️ ❤️ R.I.P.
