It's coming up on a year that you've been gone and the pain of losing you is still very fresh to us all. No Thanksgiving this year and Christmas won't be a happy time either. I miss my mom. Some days are harder than others. You were the best mom anyone could ask for. THE BEST! You're forever in my heart mind and soul. We will all see you again someday so until then just remember you are still loved

David, Tony and Denise, my heart is heavy and prayers go up for you and your family today. Your home was my second home when growing up and in Sedalia. Helen always opened her heart to me and my siblings, and we felt right at home. When I think of all the good times, those thoughts include Granny, Marvin, Maurice and of course Helen. I know she is with them all and being showered with love. Gloria, I can't imagine how you're feeling, please know I am praying for strength during this difficult time. Love Chuckie

My condolences to the family of Helen Joyce Spruell. I grew up with and lived across the street from the Herndon family. Our families were close friends. I have such fond memories of Helen as we grew up together on Pettis and Washington Streets. I will truly miss her. You're at peace my friend. May God Bless Helen's family and give them peace.
