RIP Ms Nina, you were the sweetest coworker ever had the pleasure to work with. CCH didn't know what they had. Thank you for all the years of services you provided to the patients and staff. I truly enjoyed having you on our staff at the new hospital. You truly was an angel in disguise. I'm going to miss you so much. hopefully one day we can catch up. I'm sure Anna has you a welcome cake waiting for you love. Keep a blessed eye over this crazy world. We definitely need someone on our side. A light sure went out when you left. My most deepest condolences to your family. Enjoy your new home Nina, your deserve the best and I'm sure Jesus is glad your home with him.
