Mom i love you so much I wish you was still here. Everyone is going on with their life and I'm still stuck on the day I got the message you passed away. I don't think I'll ever get over this. You were my best friend and my amazing beautiful momma. Life has not been the same without you. I don't have anyone to laugh and be goofy with anymore .

Amy and I are 8 days apart in age, and we always got excited about our Summer Birthdays! I'm at the end of July and she was the beginning of August. (I'm older and I'd always remind her to respect her elders!) . In reality when our birthdays came around we acted like 2 teenagers that were rebellious, wild and free! We're Leo's, of course we were gonna be the highlight of anywhere we went! One year I had to remind her she wasn't turning 43, we were BOTH turning 44 that year! Boy the look on her beautiful face was priceless! But that goes to show you that when you love life, your family and friends, you lose track of time and sometimes don't realize how quickly the years go by... I am grateful for the years God allowed her to be a positive influence in my life. In the few years we had together, she became a best and TRUSTED friend, and like a sister to me. Amy, my heart is so consumed right now with grief but I hope and pray you will still be by my side as my guardian angel, as I finish the rest of this journey in life without you as my best friend. I love you always and forever until we meet again my sweet guardian angel.....
