Florene Kaye Aegerter

FEB 18, 1956 - FEB 11, 2025

Florene Kaye Aegerter passed away peacefully, surrounded by loved ones at Legendary nursing home in Marshall, Missouri on February 11, 2025.

Flo was born February 18, 1956 in Medford Oregon, she was the daughter of Flora Lillie Martin and Ernest Earl Martin, raised in West Sacramento, California she moved to Marshall Missouri in 2018.

She was known around Marshall as the "Pink hair lady" who was always smiling! Flo didn't have a mean bone in her body, everyone she came across adored her. She attended first Baptist church. Flo would have given the shirt off of her back to anyone in need, she had such a kind heart. Flo volunteered many years at the River City Food Bank in Sacramento and the Farmers Market for the River City Food Bank.

Flo was preceeded in death by her mom flora, dad Ernest and siblings Sami DeWitt, Willie DeWitt, Buster DeWitt and Marilyn DeWitt.

Flo is survived by her Two daughters, Christine Stinnett and Lillie Curtis, one son, Robert DeWitt, and good friend Michelle Lea. Flo leaves behind eleven grandkids, Sam Stinnett, Crimson Stinnett, Sam Vuong Jr, Bella Vuong, Rory Vuong and Xaiden Vega. Justyn Crain, Jonathan Lea Jr., Ariel Lea, Dalton Lea and Adrianna Lea. Flo will be greatly missed by all of the lives she touched with her contagious smile and loving heart for many years to come.
