Jordan Muro

AUG 2, 1996 - MAY 22, 2025

Jordan Antonio Muro, 28, of Columbia, Missouri, passed away on Thursday, May 22, 2025, at the University of Missouri. A celebration of his life will be held on Saturday, June 7, 2025, at 2:00 PM at 404 Tiger Lane, Columbia, MO 65202.

Born on August 2, 1996, in San Antonio, Texas, Jordan was the beloved son of Rudolfo Muro and Debbie Muro. Known for his bright spirit, humor, and generous heart, Jordan brought joy and laughter to all who knew him.

A gamer, Jordan was a master of Call of Duty, where his skills were unmatched. He loved losing in College Football 25 to his brother-in-law, humorously blaming it on his sister. Jordan was also a fan of Drake's music, which served as the soundtrack to many moments of his life.

He is lovingly survived by his mother, Debbie Muro, and stepfather, Chris Wettengel; his father, Rudy Muro, and stepmother, Adrianna Muro; his siblings Zack Muro, Madison Muro, and Steffon White; his girlfriend Kyla Hinson and a host of extended family and friends who will miss him dearly.

Jordan's memory will live on in the hearts of all who were lucky enough to know him. His humor, his warmth, and his love will never be forgotten.

Jordan gave me hope that any single soul can find the light in the darkest of corners. That even an adult can still dream and have an imagination and PLAY. And maaan could that boy play some ball. "BUTTERRRR!" He was always down to clown, give any skeptic a run for their money, turn anyone's frown upside down, and soldier through- no matter how bad he was hurting in "secret." I lived with him for a month, have known him for only 7 months, but I will love and cherish him for a lifetime. J-Rad, Oregano, "But like, what would RAD say??" I think he'd say "I may not be in Pennsylvania, but here where I am- it is ALWAYS sunny."

Jordan was a beautiful man with a blinding light he carried everywhere. You had such potential and was one of the most intelligent people I've ever known. You will be greatly missed and never forgotten. To Debbie, as a parent my heart breaks for you. You have been through so much. I have prayed for you for years and will continue. I hope you can find peace in this chaos. To Zack and Maddie, he loved you guys more than you can fathom. I pray for yall. Always will. Jordy was a large presence in our lives! His intentions never shined as bright as they could have. He was a dear friend of my son, Jeffrey Turner and I am saddened we lost Jordan waaaay too early in life! I frequently referred to Jordy as the "Eddie Haskal of the 21st century!" (Look up Leave it to Beaver.) As Jordy was charming, polite, kind, handsome and very aware of HOW to behave in front of parents - specifically! He always said the "right" thing! Ultimately, Jordan was loved and called friend. His absence will not go unnoticed! Peace be with all who morn his loss! ❤️ Janet Lee
