Phyllis Mary Conway entered eternal life on May 28, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love. Born on September 16, 1949, in Fayette, Missouri to Minnie Marie Gaines-Crump and Irvin Crump, Phyllis grew up in a close-knit community rooted in family values and resilience.

Phyllis attended Lincoln Public School and later graduated from Fayette High School, where she set out on a lifelong path marked by determination, perseverance, and an unwavering work ethic. She began her early career at Central Methodist College and later worked as a factory employee at National Garment until it's closing. Phyllis pursued other careers until 2001; when she found a new chapter at the Isle of Capri Casino, and served faithfully until her retirement in 2016.

On March 14, 1975, Phyllis married the love of her life, Ross "Nate" Conway. Together, they built a life filled with family and shared memories.

Phyllis was unapologetically herself- bold and deeply rooted in who she was. She found joy in the simple things, relaxing on her porch on a sunny day, playing her old school music, and sharing laughs

Though her passing leaves a space that cannot be filled, her spirit lives on through the generations she helped shape.

She leaves to cherish her memory:

- Her three children: Gloria Crump (Sam) of Kansas City, MO; Tracy Crump (Bill) of Oak Grove, MO; and Clinton Conway (Lori) of Boonville, MO
- Her three sisters: Matilda Crump, Constance Crump, and Annette Crump, all of Fayette, MO
