“ Beverly was a beautiful baby who grew into a beautiful woman. I remember as a little girl the endless energy she had. It was hard to keep up with her. Even as a young adult she loved children and often took care of her siblings. Since I loved sewing little girl clothes, I often made clothes for her and her sister. I loved seeing them in my creations and they loved getting to dress up in them. Instead of calling me Aunt Dorothy, She lovingly nicknamed me Aunt D and it stuck. I will truly miss her. Love you always.

“ She used to sit in the car, blaring the radio and sing loudly, off key! She didn't care who heard her, she was just happy in that moment! I picture her in a fancy convertible, top down, hot sun shining on her and her just cruising down the highway blaring music and singing her heart out...Full of nothing but contentment and peace and holding on to every positive, happy, love-filled moment of her life and completely oblivious to any negative or pain. This is the image I will keep of her, always. My heart is with everyone missing her.
