“ It is healthy and honorable
to weep at the loss of someone we love Healthy because such passion must be released.
Honorable because it is respectfull to admit the importance of people who have loved and supported us... people whose footprints cannot ever be matched.

“ “Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower, We will grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind. William Wordsworth

“ With deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. May you know that she will be dearly missed. Our prayers are with you and your family during this time. We understand how you are feeling at this moment. Hopefully, this poem to your mother below will bring you some comfort:

I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday and days before that too,
I think of you in silence
I often speak your name
All I have are memories and your picture in a frame Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part God has you in His keeping I have you in my heart.

“ JC/Rhea and Family, I was deeply grieved to hear about your Mom's death.
“Trust in the Lord with all your hearts and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him; and He will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6
I will continue pray for you all.
Much love,
Aunt Cherrie
