

J.A. Clarke Beattie

October 2, 1945 - April 13, 2017

J. A. Clarke Beattie of Columbia Missouri passed away April 13th 2017. He is best known in the world for the thousands of cherished pieces of jewelry he designed and created at Beattie Jewelers. He was an avid traveler, chef, and craftsman with a keen eye for detail in everything he created. As a Vietnam Veteran serving in the US Navy, he was dedicated to his country and served 3 years when called. His laugh and his passion for life and beauty will be sorely missed by many, especially his children. Renee Taylor (Beattie) and John Beattie request any donations in his honor be made to the Central Missouri Honor Flight for veterans.

Memorial services will be held May 1st, 2017 at 530pm at The Crossing church.

For those who wish to may donate to the Central Missouri Honor Flight in honor of J.A. Clarke Beattie. <https://centralmissourihonorflight.com/donate/>

Events

MAY Memorial Service 05:30PM

1

The Crossing

3615 Southland Drive, Columbia, MO, US, 65201

Comments

“ Vivid Recollections was purchased for the family of J.A. Clarke Beattie.

April 26, 2017 at 06:40 PM

“ I miss you daddy♥

Renee Taylor - April 19, 2017 at 02:24 PM

“ Oh Renee, I am so deeply sorry for your loss, but so happy that your family came together. Clarke was a good man - sensitive to others and a great friend to me. xoxoxoxo

mary - April 20, 2017 at 12:59 PM

“ Renee:

Words cannot describe how sorry I am for your loss. Your dad was truly one of the greatest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing.

I take solace in knowing that he is free of pain and suffering. His spirit is soaring high, I have no doubt.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Alyssa - April 20, 2017 at 07:03 PM