“ I am so grateful for you crossing my path in this life Lori .
Always a smile when my day wasn't going good she had a great sense of humor I just saw her a few weeks ago.
So hard to process.

“ I met Lori at a time when she didn't have a lot of hope, she went through an all womens center in Columbia and made some friends and found some hope, she stayed in Columbia and soon started helping others and always seemed to reach out to help others even while in school and raising her son as single mom. We became friends from the time we met and we had a lot of good fun and we sometimes bumped heads in service but always got along. Lori helped so many people and she helped me and has given me many wonderful memories. I will miss her.

“ I wish I could count all the people Lori impacted directly and indirectly from her years of service. She has left the world better than she found it.

“ I meant Lori when my son Jamie and her son Jeremy were very young boys. The boys were very close through their preschool years and some years after that. The boys friendship is what brought me to know Lori. She was a wonderfully kind sweet mother. She was a kind good friend. Her life served a rich propose. I wish Jeremy and the rest of the family peace and love.

With love,
Hudson

“ Lori and I have been friends for many years. However, I had not seen Lori in several years but I would see Jeremy and think about her. Lori was a VITAL (woman) person in my life and supported me through struggles and shared her own experience, strength and hope to many. She will be greatly missed. My prayers are with her son and family members. God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Rest now Lori, you will always be in my heart! Love Dana

“ I live in Stockholm, Sweden, but I am originally from Columbia, MO. I am so sorry to hear the news that Lori has passed away and I hope that during this difficult time that peace come over her son, Jeremy, family, and closes friends. I am proud to say that I was friend's with Lori and she helped me in so many ways to become the woman that I am today. I will always remember what she taught me and carry that in my heart. Rest in Peace Lori. Love and Respect, Liz Sharp
