“ Tammy, you and I were the best of friends in our younger days. But always have felt we were always. I loved you like a sis. You had a very rough life. You never deserved. Now you are wrapped up in Our Lord and Saviors Arms and are filled with so much Joy! Although you were loved by everyone you touched. I will miss you a lot ! One day we will be together again. Until then I will continue think of you. I love you very much !
