“ To be honest, I can't choose one memory of my father.. he was such a kind person he became like friend to me. We would talked daily. He would call me on my way to school and when T got home I knew he was on the phone waiting for me. He understood me in ways that no one else could. If I had a bad day he'd let me say whatever I needed to get it out of my system and then make a joke and I'd laugh and forget it'd even happened,and i would do the same for him. I told him everything I've done wrong. My secrets and my feelings. And he'd share his. I'm proud of him. I'm proud of every accomplishment he ever made. I'm proud that I'm the daughter of an amazing man. I miss the way we bonded over music. We had the exact taste in music. Our song was "mocking bird" and "when I'm gone" by Eminem. there were way more songs, but those were the ones we'd mostly talk about. Everyone tells me I'm a spitting image of him. When they tell me that, I get proud. I want to be just like him. He did a few bad things, but if you look past that you'd find a man with a soft heart, who had an amazing sense of humor, who understood me. My friend. I miss him everyday. There was this one day and i'll never forget it. He said "Brie, I want you to never forget that i love you" and i remember all of a sudden he started to cry. I said "daddy what's wrong?" he started asking me forgiveness for not being the father that I deserve. I told him he was all I needed and that he was the father I deserved and that I loved him no matter what. He was an amazing father and friend and I love him. I miss him everyday. But he is with his brother and my mother and I know he is happy. I miss you dad and I'll forever love you.

“ I recently left a teaching position at BCC where Timothy "Tex," was a student of mine. My sincere and heartfelt condolences to ALL his family and friends. Like so many of you I find it difficult to believe that he is gone.

While it is difficult to pick a "favorite" student as they ALL are special in their own right in my heart, Timothy was a favorite of mine and will be sorely missed. He always managed to bring a smile to my face, especially regarding his love for Sweet Baby Ray's BBQ sauce. I will never be able to not think of him when I use that sauce. I feel like I know so many of you because he talked so fondly of you, especially his mother.

I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. I also hope that Ms. Grant will reach out to me.

Sincerely,

Keener Tippin

“ Oh, Uncle Timmy... it's been about 10-12 years since I've seen you. Even though it's been so long since we've seen or talked to one another, I thought of you and the kiddos often. Your smile, laughter, and goofy personality will truly be missed. One memory I have is when you lived here in Texas. I remember my mom driving us to the car wash you were working at just so we could say "hi", and see how you were doing. Every time we saw each other, which sadly wasn't often, you always shared a story with me about my dad, John Jr., and of course would make fun of Ashleigh and I for having big feet like our dad. I am so truly thankful to have spent the time I did have with you and will always cherish those moments. I know you and my dad are up in heaven having a great time catching up after all these years apart.

“ I recently seen Timmy in 2017. It had been about 13 years or so since I had last seen him. We had a good 4 hour visit we were able to talk about so much. We kept up and talked a lot through email so it's been really cool. He was actually the first person I talked to the other day when I landed from Iraq. It was a brief 5 minute phone call but I'm glad I got to talk to him. Timmy I'll always love you and wish you were still here. Rest In Peace

“ Josh. Thank you for posting your comment and the picture. Tim cried everytime he talked about you coming to see him, and how you brought all those quarters so he could buy food from vending machines. The word love is a verb.....an action word and you put your love for Timmy in action. Tim said you were his one and only visitor in all the years he was there. God truly will reward your kindness. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

“ Tim never failed to call me everyday. He would tell me all his favorite memories, most of them about his brother John, who went to heaven February 21, 1998. Tim told me the day before he left this earth, that he wanted to leave here so much and be in heaven. He is where he wants to be. I miss him very much, and I have lost more than I can express. As his mother, I knew he wasn't perfect but he was loving, caring, and a dear prayer partner. My first born son, and last born son are in heaven with Jesus. And that is where they finally found peace and great love. Their heavenly Father welcomed them home with loving arms.
